

Soft Rush

Juncus effuses

-Clumps of Soft Rush provide cover and seeds for waterfowl, game birds, marsh birds, and songbirds.

-Muskrats graze new shoots.

-The base of the stems offers spawning habitat, particularly for Rock Bass.

-Some of the greater qualities of the Soft Rush are that it can help with erosion control issues and act as a hatchery for fish.

